Tina,

I'm a little confused about this one. Is this someone we have rejected before or was on a felon report? I don't have any information on him.

If he is a new registration who marked "yes" to the felony question, he is not eligible to vote unless I have processed his documentation and send an eligibility letter confirming his only felony conviction was during the grace period. In order to do that, however, I need his full name, DOB, and full SSN. Can you call me to give me that information?

Thanks,

Jessica

Jessica,

We received the following information from the Carroll County, OH clerk regarding [REDACTED] felony restoration. We have registered him since it falls with the dates when felons didn't lose their rights in Tennessee. Please let me know, if you need additional information.

Thanks,

Hey Kim,

We sent a rejection letter to [REDACTED] regarding his felony conviction. They have sent the following information that was received from the Carroll County, OH clerk. I'm not sure if this is acceptable or not since he doesn't have to have a restoration of rights. I have filed his registration form back in the rejection file until you have time to review his situation.

Thanks,

Tina Price

Re: Voting rights for [REDACTED]

As per our 10:40 AM phone call, I am forwarding the information from the Carroll County clerk of courts (Ohio) regarding the felony charges against my husband, [REDACTED] He was convicted in 1978, which according to the information you provided, means he did not lose his right to vote. He always voted when we lived in Ohio.

I am his wife, [REDACTED] You can reach me at this email address or at my cell phone number [REDACTED] I probably won't answer the phone, so be prepared to leave a short message. Thanks!

All the best,

Hello,

I searched your records through <http://50.42.31.132/eservices/home.page.2;jsessionid=43CB0A2923A88395405AF5DED4C9C01>
because Tennessee is asking my husband, [REDACTED] to show documentation that his conviction date was between 1/15/1973 and 5/17/1981 so he can vote. We previously lived in Ohio and did not have this issue. He believes his conviction date was February 1978, there at the Carroll County Courthouse. I searched around those dates too, but no matches were found. Are you records dating back to 1978 online? Can you suggest anything to help me find the documentation I am looking for? Thanks for any help you can provide.

All the best,
